

Thank you for your willingness to present at the virtual 2021 Design-Build Conference & Expo, November 1-3, 2021!

We cannot serve attendees and members without your expert knowledge, experience, and contributions.

While you probably have speaking experience either with DBIA or elsewhere, please take the time to read through this brief speaker manual and agreement. All the information here has been created just for you—to help you get the most out of your experience and deliver an exceptional presentation.

Use the conference Speaker Service Center (SSC) as your primary guide. The SSC is a one-stop-shop that gives you access to important deadlines and resources. Please sign this Speaker's Agreement and Expectations and upload to the Speaker Service Center by June 1, 2021.

1. Dates & Deadlines

All speakers MUST adhere to the dates and deadlines set in this schedule! Set reminders to help yourself remember when specific items are due.

- Accept the terms of this speaker manual and agreement by filling out the form below: June 1st
- Draft Presentation Slides (if applicable) Due September 13th
- Presentations Reviewed and Feedback (if any) to presenters September 30th
- Final presentations Due October 15th
- Commit to be available at a time slot determined by DBIA between November 1-3, 2021*

*Should circumstances dictate the need to transition to a virtual event, agree to pre-record your session approximately two weeks prior to the event for use during the conference.

2. Start engaging now on Twitter and other social media platforms

Tell your friends and colleagues you are attending! Follow Twitter username @DBIANational and hashtag #DBIACON for conference-related tweets, including announcements, deadlines, event information, and other news leading up to the conference. During the conference, that hashtag will be in use by attendees, so feel free to jump in or simply follow along!

3. Speaker Expectations and Guidelines

Purpose

DBIA is committed to providing a friendly, safe, and welcoming environment for all, regardless of gender, sexual orientation, disability, ethnicity, or religion. These guidelines outline our expectations for participant behavior as well as the consequences for unacceptable behavior.

We invite all sponsors, volunteers, speakers, attendees, exhibitors, and other participants to help us realize a safe and positive conference experience for everyone.

All determinations of appropriate or inappropriate behavior are in DBIA's sole discretion and the decision of DBIA's representatives will be final.

Representing DBIA

The following behaviors are expected and requested of all Conference speakers as you represent DBIA:

- Exercise consideration and respect in your speech and actions.
- Refrain from demeaning, discriminatory, or harassing behavior and speech.
